Colchester Youth Awards

2012 Nomination Form

What can you nominate a young person for?

Entrepreneur

Nominate a young person who has had an enterprising idea for a business or community activity that makes money or meets a need.

Volunteer

This award recognises the efforts of a young person or persons who give their time voluntarily for the benefit of others

Creative Arts

Nominate individuals or groups who have made an outstanding contribution in the genre of art (drawing, dance, writing, music etc.)

Community Improvement

Nominate a group or an individual who have contributed to the wellbeing of their community or look to address either the impacts of climate change, or other environmental issues

Learning & Participation

The aim for this award is not to award the person who has achieved top grades easily. This award recognises positive attitudes, personal successes and overcoming struggles by achieving in School, College or University.

Outstanding Achievement

This achievement could be associated with sport; a battle with health issues or a young person who has cared for someone else. The award recognises great efforts to achieve goals in difficult circumstances.

Personal Journey

This recognises the ability of an individual or a group of individuals to overcome difficulties in their family, social, educational or work lives.

Thank you for choosing to nominate a young person for the 2012 Colchester Youth Awards. Please take the time to complete this form, including as much information as is possible. Details of how to submit this nomination can be found on the last page. Please note, agreement of this nomination will be required from the person or group of young people being nominated.

Confidentiality & Storage of Personal Data

Colchester Youth Awards Partnership is keen to promote a positive image of young people in the Borough.

The aim of these awards is to highlight and celebrate the success of young people and their continued commitment to the community in and around Colchester.

Colchester Youth Awards Partnership treats the issue of confidentiality and storing of personal data as a matter of paramount importance. CYA can advise that all submitted Nomination Forms are securely stored and dealt with by members of the partnership all of which have CRB clearance.

CYA also acknowledges that the information contained within the submitted Nomination forms will be of a personal and sensitive nature, and therefore requires the young person to sign the consent box on the nomination form before it can be accepted, in order that we are satisfied that the young person in question is happy with the wording and to share their story. This information will not be shared with any third party.

All nomination forms will be confidentially destroyed as soon as the event has taken place. The CYA Secretary will keep your contact details electronically on a password protected database.
